I know that there were constructionwork in your building, therefore the meetingroom couldn't be perfect! Temperature was low, no heating. It influences me!

Perhaps it would have been nice to have more time to hear from each other - but I appreciate that time was short and there was a lot of paperwork and logistics to look at and discuss.

Perhaps if it had been three days rather than 2 days? As to the room (at Edufor), its' a shame that your new room wasn't ready....I agree with Theo when he said that it was difficult to see each other in the way we were sitting etc. But hopefully by the time we come back in April, we'll see the finished rooms :)

The organising team has worked hard to prepare all the documents so that every partner is clear on what they are doing and what they need to do before the next meeting or training session.

Need to know better how to manage the trainings, duration and contents...

As I said earlier, it would have been nice to hear from each other a bit more - especially as this was the first time we'd met. But, as I've said before, I do appreciate that time was short and there was a lot to do. I certainly appreciated coming away very clear with budget, tasks, dates and a very clear understanding of what the whole project entails.

I think you have chosen the partners well - a good mix of personalities and lots of experience.
I can't wait to meet up again :)
